Your eligibility for an extension is determined in part by your location, UBC student status, and occupation during the extension period. The same factors will determine the length of extension that you are eligible for. An insurance agent from DCIS will contact you if you are not eligible for the number of months that you are applying for. To qualify for an extension of coverage effective the day after your current iMED expiry date you must submit this application with your payment to DCIS on or before the expiry date of your current iMED policy. Otherwise, your application will be processed as a request for a new policy, and if approved the new policy would be issued effective no earlier than the date we receive your application and payment.

During the extension period I will: (please check all that apply) continue as a registered student at UBC.

be a registered student at a new school.

Name of School:

take an employment position at UBC.

be a visitor in BC until I return to my home country.

will travel in Canada until I return to my home country.

will travel outside Canada until I return to my home country.

remain in Canada to apply for permanent resident status or for a work permit for employment other than at UBC.

Other (please specify):

Where will you be during the extension period you are applying for?

Date that you will return to your home country (mm/dd/yyyy):

My most recent iMED policy will expire on (mm/dd/yyyy):

The cost of $78 Canadian Dollars per month is per insured person, for up to two people including the student are to be insured. For 3 or more people, the cost is 2.5 x the individual rate.

of coverage months	X $78 per month	Individual Premium	X 2 for couple rate X 2.5 for family rate	$ Family Premium

What is a secure CVV code?

The secure CVV (customer verification value) code is a 3 or 4 digit code printed on your credit card. We require this code as a security measure to our clients. Requiring this information helps to ensure that the credit card is present at the time of purchase. If you cannot find this code, or it is illegible, please contact your credit card issuer.
